

DOING THE BODY IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Michelle Murphy, University of Toronto

ALTERLIFE IN THE AFTERMATH
Saturday
April 2, 2016
324 Cathedral of Learning
6–7:30 p.m.

Feminist technoscience studies scholar and historian Michelle Murphy discusses the theory that all life is enfolded through industrial chemicals and environmental violence. Discover what the chemical consequences may be of industrial capitalism, militarism, and racism that stretch across bodies transgenerationally and mutate the material manifestations of race and sex.

This keynote address is part of the international conference, Doing the Body in the 21st Century and is free and open to the public
